

PILGRIM'S SEASIDE CABIN

Attractions

BEAUFORT VINEYARD & ESTATE WINERY

Address: 5854 Pickering Road, Courtenay, BC, V9J 1T4
Tel: 250-338-1357
www.beaufortwines.ca

40 KNOTS WINERY

Address: 2400 Anderton Rd, Comox, BC, V9M 4E5
Tel: 250-941-8810
www.40knotswinery.com

BLUE MOON ESTATE WINERY

Address: 4905 Darcy Road, Courtenay, BC V9J 1R5
Tel: 250-338-9765
www.blumoonwinery.ca

COASTAL BLACK WINERY

Address: 2186B Endall Rd, Black Creek, BC, V9J 1G8
Tel: 250-337-8325
www.coastalblack.ca

COMOX AIR FORCE MUSEUM

Listed as one of the top ten things to do on a rainy day. Y2K Spitfire Project: The Y2K Spitfire Restoration Project: is another major tourist attraction in the Comox Valley. Vintage Wings of Canada, in partnership with the Museum, will restore this Spitfire to flying condition. The hangar where it is being restored is open most Saturdays, 10 am - 3 pm. The Heritage Hangar is located 500 meters from the Museum.

Address: Located at CFB Comox main entrance gate, corner of Military Row & Ryan Rd.
Tel: 250-339-8162 www.comoxairforcemuseum.ca
Open to the Public Year Round, Tuesday to Sunday, 10 am – 4 pm daily.

COMOX VALLEY ART GALLERY

View the work of local, regional and national artists at the Comox Valley Art Gallery. Explore various art forms, which change throughout the year. The Gift Shop features the beautiful work of many local artists. Browse the selection of ceramics, jewelry, carvings, pottery and prints.

Address: #100-580 Duncan Ave., Courtenay, BC Tel: 250-338-6211
www.comoxvalleyartgallery.com

COMOX VALLEY FARMERS MARKET

In summer the market operates every Sat. from 9am to 12 noon at the Comox Valley Exhibition Grounds. It offers a wide array of vendors with locally grown, fresh, organic, and specialty products. Check out the live entertainment and home-baked treats. In fall and winter the market is held at the Native Sons Hall on Cliffe at the foot of Fourth Avenue in downtown Courtenay.

Address: 3001 Vanier Dr., Courtenay, Tel: 250-218-0321 www.comoxvalleyfarmersmarket.com

Attractions Continued

COMOX VALLEY HARBOUR FISH SALES - "Comox Fisherman's Wharf"

Buy quality fresh and frozen fish and seafood direct from the fishermen at the Comox Valley Harbour Marina seafood sales dock. Fresh and frozen-at-sea seasonal seafood available.

Address: 121 Port Augusta St., Comox, Call 250-339-6041 to find out today's catch!
www.comoxfishermanswharf.com/fish_sales/index.htm

COURTENAY & DISTRICT MUSEUM & PALEONTOLOGY CENTRE

Take the fossil tour at the Courtenay & District Museum and Paleontology Centre. Check out the fossils and videos, then join a fossil finding expedition.

Address: 360 Cliffe Ave., Courtenay Tel: 250-334-0686 www.courtenaymuseum.ca

CRUISE SHIP VIEWING!

Watch the cruise ships sail past right in front of the cabin! Alaska cruise ship season is from May to September. Most sail past on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. Enjoy!

Visit: www.portmetrovancover.com/en/about/cruiseandtourism/cruiselineschedules.aspx

CUMBERLAND MUSEUM & ARCHIVES

The Cumberland Museum and Archives has extensive archives and artifacts of the community of Cumberland. Open all year, over 40 exhibits, a Company Store, research services, after school programs, heritage events, guided tours of town and mine sites, films & a replica coal mine.

Address: 2680 Dunsmuir Ave., Cumberland Tel: 250-336-2445 www.cumberlandmuseum.ca

FILBERG PARK

Tour the Filberg a heritage building that captures the traditional splendor of stone and timber. Walk the beautiful landscaped gardens and the beachside walkway, and stop in for tea at the Filberg Tea House. Visit the Filberg Festival held each August, as well as art shows, a gift shop, and live concerts in the park.

Address: 61 Filberg Rd., Comox, BC Tel: 250-339-2715 Website: www.filberg.com

KITTY COLEMAN WOODLAND GARDENS

A picturesque stroll through Woodland Gardens takes you through the largest collection of rhododendrons in Western Canada. Bring a picnic, watch the birds, and enjoy the rural tranquility.

Address: 6183 Whitaker Rd., Courtenay Tel: 250-338-6901 www.woodlandgardens.ca

K\ÓMOKS FIRST NATION

Explore the traditional customs, dress, and culture of the K\Ómoks First Nation at the Nim Nim Interpretive Centre on the traditional lands of the Pentlatch People. The Centre features workshops on topics such as traditional food preparation, drum making and traditional healing.

Address: 4624 Condensory Rd., Courtenay Tel: 250-334-3773
www.puntledgerv.com/interpretive-centre.html

PORTUGUESE JOE'S FISH MARKET

The quality at Joe's never slips. A long tradition in the Comox Valley - excellent quality seafood.

Address: 3025 Comox Rd, Courtenay, BC V9N 3P7 Tel: 250-339-2119

Attractions Continued

PUNTLEDGE RIVER HATCHERY

Self-guided tours, informative signs, underwater viewing of Chinook, Pink, Coho and Chum salmon. Guided group tours are available - call or email hatchery in advance to make arrangements. Facility is open daily, year-round, including holidays, 8 am to 3:30 pm.

Address: 38 Powerhouse Rd., Courtenay Tel: 250-703-0907 Email: Judy.Bergeron@dfo-mpo.gc.ca
<http://www.pac.dfo-mpo.gc.ca/sep-pmvs/projects-projets/puntledge/puntledge-eng.htm>

Directions: From the Inland Island Highway, take the Courtenay/Cumberland exit and turn east to Courtenay. At the traffic lights for Cumberland Road, turn left and then the first left at Marsden Road. Turn right on Lake Trail Road, and left on Powerhouse Rd.

SARATOGA SPEEDWAY

North Vancouver Island's premier motor speedway, located on north-central Vancouver Island with stock car races, drag racing, flat track motorcycle racing and outdoor concerts.

Address: 2380 Macaulay, Black Creek Tel: 250-923-2982 www.saratogaspeedway.bc.ca

SEIFERT'S FARM MARKET

Seifert's Farm Market on Knight Road in Comox has a farm market open daily and packed full of locally grown (some from BC like Okanagan fruit) from late May until November every year.

Directions: Follow Ryan Rd till you get to the very end (at the base) and turn right on Pritchard. Follow along till you get to the next main intersection and turn right (Knight Rd).

Address: 720 Knight Rd., Comox Tel: 250-339-2988